

Ss PETER & PAUL

MARCH 9, 2025 | 1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led into the desert for forty days.

THE 1ST SUNDAY of Lent

As we begin this forty-day Lenten journey, reflect, today, upon the sins and temptations in your life that need to be overcome. Embrace the opposite virtue of the sins you are most tempted with this Lent. Embrace those virtues in an offensive manner. Choose kindness if you struggle with anger. Choose fasting if you struggle with gluttony. Choose generosity if you struggle with greed. Whatever your struggle, turn to the virtue you need the most and make it your focus this Lent so that you, too, will be well-prepared to reject the evil one and his lies when temptation comes your way. Pray for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

Fasting during Lent

Fasting helps us focus on God as the greatest importance in our lives. Other things we can do without. It unites us with our Lord Jesus who fasted in the desert for 40 days. Sometimes we are called to give up a food item, like candy or soda. Sometimes we are called to give up something which is occupying our time, like video games or endless checking on social media. This is a good time to think about what is ruling your life. Where is your attention drawn? What is occupying your time and thoughts? Give that thing up.

When Lent is over, contemplate where your focus went when you no longer had that thing. Were you more able to focus on God and others? If so, try not to let the thing you gave up take over your life again.

If you go back to it, keep it under control and in check.

Here are some ways to expand upon the required fasting during Lent...

go beyond the required fasting

- ✓ FAST FROM A SECOND HELPING Some of us have such an abundance of food while others in this world have so little. This Lent, try fasting from a second helping. Start with a moderate first helping and then stop.
- ✓ ABSTAIN FROM MEAT ON A DAY IN ADDITION TO FRIDAY Fasting is one of the traditional Catholic Lenten practices. All Catholics abstain from meat on Fridays during Lent as a form of fasting. For personal fasting, you can choose to voluntarily abstain from meat one more day during the week.

fasting from conveniences or technology

- ✓ CELL PHONE FAST: DISCONNECT TO CONNECT Some of us may not remember a time before people had cell phones. It might seem impossible to fast from your cell phone, but you might discover you have more time to pay attention to other people and to the Lord.
- ✓ FAST FROM EMAILS AND TEXTS We have become so dependent on emails and texts to connect us with others. Try fasting from emailing and texting this Lent. When you receive an email or text, instead of replying in kind, call the person or speak to them face to face. The personal interaction is different and you might encounter Jesus there.

fast from something you enjoy

- ✓ FAST FROM HITTING THE SNOOZE BUTTON If you like to sleep in, this might be the Lenten fasting practice for you. When your alarm goes off, don't hit the snooze button. Instead, get up and pray!
- ✓ GIVE UP A FAVORITE TV PROGRAM FOR A WEEK Do you have a program you've started binge watching? Build your self control by putting down the remote control. Give up your favorite TV program for a week or more.

fast from a bad attitude or habit

- ✓ FAST FROM COMPLAINING It is so easy to fall into the habit of complaining. To really not complain at all for even one day is more difficult than it sounds. So try to do your best to complain about anything. At all. Really.
- ✓ FAST FROM CRITICIZING It is difficult to let go of the desire to criticize, either aloud criticism or criticism in your thoughts. Try to give it up this Lent.
- ✓ FAST FROM REFUSING HELP Fast from refusing help during Lent. If somebody asks for help, and you have the ability to help in some way, then take action. If you need a boost, read the parable of the Good Samaritan.
- ✓ FAST FROM COMPARING YOURSELF TO OTHERS Are you looking for something challenging to do during Lent? Try to fast from comparing yourself to others. When we become more accepting of our own gifts and talents and less envious of what others can do, we can live in a new freedom.
- ✓ FAST FROM OVER-SCHEDULING Sometimes it seems like we have so much to do that we can't fit another 10 minutes in our schedule. Over scheduling can be a real problem. If we don't have enough unscheduled time then we cannot live in the moment.
- ✓ FAST FROM GOSSIP Gossip impacts our relationships with each other and divides the Body of Christ. And it can easily become a bad habit and a false way to develop a feeling of "belonging". So fast from it this Lent.
- ✓ FAST FROM WORRYING We worry about so many things. We can worry about money or what others think about us or friendship or a particular situation. Try giving up worrying for Lent.

Kick-off the Lenten Season at SPP by serving those in need in our community!

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE FOR ADULTS

Oftentimes, we revert to our childhood in order to list our sins without really giving some prayerful thought to a good preparation. Using the themes from Catholic Social Teaching, please find below some supplementary questions to examine your conscience in light of the sacramental grace to be received in confession.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

- ▶ Do I respect the life and dignity of every human person from conception through natural death?
- ▶ Do I recognize the face of Christ reflected in all others around me whatever their race, class, age, or abilities?
- ▶ Do I work to protect the dignity of others when it is being threatened?
- ▶ Am I committed to both protecting human life and to ensuring that every human being is able to live in dignity?

Rights and Responsibilities

- ▶ Do I try to make positive contributions in my family and in my community?
- ▶ Are my beliefs, attitudes, and choices such that they strengthen or undermine the institution of the family?
- ▶ Am I aware of problems facing my local community and involved in efforts to find solutions? Do I stay informed and make my voice heard when needed?
- ▶ Do I support the efforts of poor persons to work for change in their neighborhoods and communities? Do my attitudes and interactions empower or disempower others?

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

- ▶ As a worker, do I give my employer a fair day's work for my wages? As an owner, do I treat workers fairly?
- ▶ Do I treat all workers with whom I interact with respect, no matter their position or class?
- ▶ Do I support the rights of all workers to adequate wages, health insurance, vacation and sick leave? Do I affirm their right to form or join unions or worker associations?
- ▶ Do my purchasing choices take into account the hands involved in the production of what I buy? When possible, do I buy products produced by workers whose rights and dignity were respected?

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

- ▶ Do I give special attention to the needs of the poor and vulnerable in my community and in the world?
- ▶ Am I disproportionately concerned for my own good at the expense of others?
- ▶ Do I engage in service and advocacy work that protects the dignity of poor and vulnerable persons?

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

- ▶ Do I recognize and respect the economic, social, political, and cultural rights of others?
- ▶ Do I live in material comfort and excess while remaining insensitive to the needs of others whose rights are unfulfilled?
- ▶ Do I take seriously my responsibility to ensure that the rights of persons in need are realized?
- ▶ Do I urge those in power to implement programs and policies that give priority to the human dignity and rights of all, especially the vulnerable?

Solidarity

- ▶ Does the way I spend my time reflect a genuine concern for others?
- ▶ Is solidarity incorporated into my prayer and spirituality? Do I lift up vulnerable people throughout the world in my prayer, or is it reserved for only my personal concerns?
- ▶ Am I attentive only to my local neighbors or also those across the globe?
- ▶ Do I see all members of the human family as my brothers and sisters?

Care for God's Creation

- ▶ Do I live out my responsibility to care for God's creation?
- ▶ Do I see my care for creation as connected to my concern for poor persons, who are most at risk from environmental problems?
- ▶ Do I litter? Live wastefully? Use energy too freely? Are there ways I could reduce consumption in my life?
- ▶ Are there ways I could change my daily practices and those of my family, school, workplace, or community to better conserve the earth's resources for future generations?

POLICE & FIRE DEPT MASS

SUNDAY
MARCH

We are pleased to host, again, the Public Safety Department's Annual Communion Mass, for the members of the Hoboken Police and Fire Departments, here at Saints Peter & Paul.

It will take place at the regular 12pm Mass on Sunday, March 30th, and also be the Departments' renewed celebration of the Feast of Saint Patrick. Fire and Police Department personnel will be in full force, including participation in the ministries of the Mass. All are invited to join in the Departments' celebration Mass. Obviously, the Church will be more crowded than usual at this 12pm Mass, and particular pews will be reserved for the uniformed personnel, so plan your attendance at Mass that weekend accordingly.

We are proud to honor our City's Police and Firefighters with this accommodation, as we give God thanks for their Service to the Community, and pray for their continued safety.

Kudos, to our Cantor Nicole Spano!
